

'Pride and Shine Week' Activities Under Way

Cleanup Program Planned

Heavily armed with shovels, rakes and similar paraphernalia, a brigade of some 50 volunteers is today ready to launch "Pride and Shine Week" and a city-wide cleanup campaign.

Starting promptly at 8 a.m. Monday, following a coffee and doughnut breakfast, cleanup campaigners take off on the first stages of a week-long program designed to rid the city of backyard litter and street-side rubble.

PRIDE AND SHINE chairman Harold Hicks said volunteers from city service clubs will cover designated areas in the city, gathering debris for a big, day-long collection program next Saturday.

After a Monday morning briefing by Co-Chairman Kaye Hall, park and recreation director, and Jimmy Cooper, Chamber of Commerce manager, cleanup crews plan to shoulder their litter bags and proceed with their assignments.

MAPS OF ASSIGNED areas will be handed to group leaders who, in turn, will report to their respective organizations.

Starting Monday, activity will be geared to "D-Day." Disposal Day, Saturday—when debris gathered during the week will be picked up by trucks loaned by business firms, contractors and the city.

Burning permits, which are normally prohibited at this time of the year, will be issued without cost by the city during the week of Dec. 1 through 6.

ALL DEBRIS WHICH can be safely destroyed by fire should be ignited to "reduce the tremendous work load of the pick-up crews," Hicks said.

Also during the period of Pride and Shine Week, residents and merchants will be permitted to assemble their disposable material and place it curbside for pickup Saturday.

All such rubbish, however, must be loaded into containers which cannot be disturbed by the wind, Hicks pointed out.

HICKS ALSO NOTED that "this is a terrific opportunity for all

ART STUDENTS at Palm Springs High School, like Linda Williams, have made 30 identical posters to be used in conjunction with the city's "Pride and Shine Week" which gets underway here Monday. The campaign seeks to arouse civic pride in the appearance of the Village and the Indian artists have joined hands with the campaign's sponsors to help attain that end.

residents to perform a thorough job of cleaning out their garages and vacant property with a free haul-away service."

At 8 a.m., Saturday Dec. 6, all trucks and crews will assemble at the Polo Grounds, where workers will be given their assigned areas.

Lunch will be served to cleanup crews at noon, compliments of the Bank of America Security-First National and City National Banks, Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Association, Palm Springs Water Company and California Electric Power Company.

MANPOWER FOR the Pride and Shine cleanup week has been volunteered by the following organizations and their leaders:

Rotary Club, Dr. William Aiken; Optimist Club, William Zech, Jr.; Mounted Police and Los Compadres Club, Cliff Campbell; Exchange Club, Joe Garcia; Realty Board, Ernie Dunlevie; Lions Club, Charles McDonald; Kiwanis Club, Don Goudry; Junior Chamber of Commerce, Frank Allen, and the Hotel and Apartment Association, Alex Crawford.

ONE OF THE biggest single chores of the cleanup program is assigned to the Retail Merchants Association, headed by Ed McCoubrey.

This involves the scouring of the area between Alejo Road and Ramon Road on Indian Avenue and Palm Canyon Drive.

School Matters Head Desert Items for Board

Two Palm Springs Unified School District matters head a list of nine agenda items concerning the desert area for the Board of Supervisors meeting in Riverside Monday morning.

The supervisors will hold a hearing at 11 a.m. on the receiving of bids on the sale of $1,138,000 in bonds of the Palm Springs Unified School District, and later in the day will consider a recommendation from the county superintendent to set a hearing date on petition for annexation of a portion of Cabazon School District to the Palm Springs District.

TWO OTHER HEARINGS set before the board Monday will be the matter of routing a freeway, Highway 187, through Morongo Valley, and the receipt of bids on the sale of $300,000 in bonds of the Indio School District.

In road matters, the supervisors will be asked to approve an agreement and bond on a Ray Ryan record of survey, and a map on Bermuda Golf Club Estates No. 2.

THE ONLY DESERT area planning matter before the supervisors will be a recommendation to approve M. Lustiger record of survey in Desert Hot Springs area.

Allies Study Countermove

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Western Allies are expected to try to focus world attention on the entire German question as a countermove against Russia's effort to force Britain, France and the United States out of West Berlin.

BARBECUE, DANCE SET TONIGHT AT DHS TOWN HALL

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — An annual Barbecue and Dance, with the proceeds used to promote this community as the "finest health resort in the world," will be held tonight at the Town Hall, Eighth and Cactus Streets, and its planners are expecting it to be the "social event of the year" here.

A barbecue dinner will be served from 6 to 8:30 p.m., and special entertainment will be presented during the dinner hours. Pat Barbara's orchestra will furnish music for dancing from 8:30 on into the evening.

Marian Anderson May Be Featured in Concert Here

A concert appearance in Palm Springs by contralto Marian Anderson is currently in the negotiation stage between the Music Society of Palm Springs and S. Hurk, manager of the Negro singer, it was announced yesterday by F. Paul Miller, manager of the society.

A March, 1959, engagement with Miss Anderson is being sought with the internationally famous artist, Miller reported.

MILLER SAID THAT he had been in discussion with Walter Prude, in the New York offices of the impresario. Details of the arrangement and a possible concert program were not available, Miller added.

Miller pointed out that the negotiations for Miss Anderson fall into line with the Music Society's policies of bringing world-acclaimed artists to this rapidly-expanding desert community.

ALREADY BOOKED for appearances here are violinist Joseph Szigeti, Jan. 18; the Feld Hungarian String Quartet, Feb. 23, and an appearance by dramatic soprano Larra Browning at a date to be announced.

The society also sponsors a civic orchestra and chorus under the directions of Harry Tomlinson. The chorus is scheduled for a concert at 8:15 p.m., Dec. 8, in the Desert Museum Auditorium.

Plane Returns To Los Angeles

A Bonanza Air Lines plane due to land here late this morning returned to Los Angeles because of a possible faulty landing gear, and landed safely there at noon.

Better facilities exist in Los Angeles for emergency landing, it was pointed out.

Landing lights failed to show the gear locked firmly in place, causing the emergency.

Four-Week Deadlock Broken At East-West Nuclear Meet

Midwest Paralyzed By Storm

Record-Breaking Snows Aided by Gale-Force Winds

United Press International

The wind-rain-and-snow whip-lash of a widespread storm that paralyzed Midwest traffic with record-breaking snows fell on the Northeast early Saturday, knocking out power lines in three states.

Gale-force winds whipping along at 68 miles per hour ripped off tree limbs, toppled power lines, and created hazardous driving conditions that already had pushed the Thanksgiving weekend holiday death toll past the 200 mark.

A UNITED PRESS International count showed that as of 9 a.m. at least 126 persons had been killed in traffic accidents since the unofficial holiday weekend began at 6 p.m. Wednesday. In addition, 20 persons lost their lives in fires, and 52 of miscellaneous accidents for a total of 298 dead.

New York State led the nation with 18 traffic fatalities, Illinois was second with 15, California listed 14, Alabama and Pennsylvania 13 each, and Ohio 12.

ALTHOUGH THE National Safety Council made no prediction on highway deaths for the 102-hour period ending midnight Sunday, it said an average of 470 persons would die in a similar period at this time of the year. The UPI counted 554 traffic deaths during last year's 102-hour Thanksgiving holiday.

Shifting of the storm of New England was followed by a southward movement of frigid air to the Gulf Coast, dropping temperatures below freezing in parts of Texas and Louisiana.

THE STORM WAS the third major weather disturbance in less than two weeks. Roads from Colorado to Pennsylvania were covered with ice and snow in what officials called some of the most hazardous conditions possible.

Snows were nearly a foot deep in parts of Indiana, while roads in southern Illinois and Ohio were clogged with 9-inch snows that brought traffic to a standstill.

YOU JUST CAN'T get away with having a civic celebration without crowning a queen so Palm Desert's Civic Committee invoked a couple of its more famous citizens in a coronation fete this week. Honorary Mayor Bing Crosby, the king of the crooners, places a regal-looking crown on Barbara Melton, queen of Gay Nineties Week in Palm Desert. The coronation took place in Crosby's plush Palm Desert home.

First Broadcast Of FM Station Set for Monday

A radio first for Palm Springs occurs Monday when the city's first FM—for frequency modulation—station takes to the airwaves.

The new station, to be known as KPSR, will broadcast continuous music from 10 a.m. until 10 p.m. from 92.1 megacycles, it was announced by Irv Chernio, general manager of the station.

Studios and transmitter for the 1,000-watt station are located on Garnet Hill. Chernio said that tests already completed indicate that the area's 5,000 FM set owners can expect continuously excellent reception from the new station.

Principal stockholders in the station are motion picture producer Maxwell Shane, Dick Sampson and George and Hy Shane.

Free TB X-Ray Unit to Be In Palm Springs Dec. 1 to 3

The Riverside County Health and Tuberculosis Assn. will send its free X-Ray mobile unit into Palm Springs on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The unit will not go to its usual locations at Palm Springs High School or in Cathedral City but will be located across the street from the Desert Inn for the entire three-day period.

On Monday, the unit will operate from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., from 1 to 4 p.m. and from 6 to 8 p.m. On Tuesday, the facility will be open from 9 a.m. to noon, from 1 to 4 p.m. and from 6 to 8 p.m. On the final day, the unit will be open from 9 a.m. to noon, and from 1 to 4 p.m.

Assisting in the registration are Mmes. Lauritz Hansen, John Williams, M. J. Jones, Frances Crocker, Edward Conby, Gladys McClure, Raymond Starr, Ted Griffith, Newton Hotchkiss, John Wood, Henry Passow, C. Keet Curran, George Ripley, Alex Jab-

Atlas Success Confirmed by Pentagon Today

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI)—The Atlas fired Friday night was America's first intercontinental ballistic missile to travel the full, ocean-spanning range of 6,325 miles, the Pentagon said today in a statement released by the Air Force.

The Washington announcement made formal the event that already was the cause of jubilant celebration here at the launching site where the giant ICBM thundered skyward in the night.

Russia claimed successful ICBM flights more than a year ago.

Test Ban Treaty Now Is Possibility

Both U. S., Russia Offer Concessions At Today's Session

GENEVA. (UPI)—The East-West nuclear conference broke its four-week-old deadlock today and Western conference sources said it was "on the threshold of being able to draft a treaty" on a nuclear test ban.

Both the United States and Russia offered modified proposals at today's special weekend session.

A RUSSIAN CONCESSION was said to have brought the opposing sides closer together on the disputed issue of a controlled test ban. The West maintained its firm stand for a close link between a test ban agreement and the projected international organization to police it.

Today's development followed two days of closed-door consultations among the U. S., British and Soviet delegations seeking a way out of the deadlock which had brought the conference to a virtual standstill.

THE SOVIETS OFFERED on Thursday night a new plan which appears to have eased the way at least for a conference start on actual drafting of a treaty.

The Soviet plan as a "major concession" Western conference sources said the Russians made "a slight amendment that came at least a little way in the direction of the U. S. position tying the control organization to a treaty document."

THE WEST HAS MAINTAINED that a workable control plan must precede any agreement to ban nuclear tests.

An official announcement at the end of a 90-minute meeting said that the United States had suggested a treaty formula which clearly links the obligation to discontinue tests to an "obligation to cooperate" with the projected international control organization.

The communiqué also disclosed that Russia has presented a modified draft treaty for a test ban. No details of the Soviet plan were disclosed.

The official announcement also revealed that Soviet delegation Chief Semyon Tsarapkin has presented to the conference "a declaration of the Soviet government on the question of cessation of nuclear weapons tests."

Smog Refugee Forced to Go Back by Fire

Bruce Lindsay, a refugee from smoggy Los Angeles, today made plans to return there unwillingly after his home near Garnet was destroyed by fire.

Located on a five-acre parcel of land, the home valued at $2,000 was completely destroyed, and approximately $150 damage was caused to his car.

The blaze was started about 9:30 a.m. by an explosion of a gasoline stove, Lindsay said. At the time he was checking other homes in the area for possible breaks.

"I came here to escape the smog," he said after the fire. "But now it looks as if I'll have to go back. The cost of rebuilding will deplete all my finances; even with the partial insurance coverage and I don't have a job here. I don't want to go, but it looks as if I'll have to."

Weather

Desert Area Forecast: Clear today through Sunday. Slightly warmer afternoons in most sections. High temperatures today 63 to 83 in upper valleys and 73 to 83 in lower valleys. Yesterday's high, 76; low, 43.

Area Entertainers Prove They 'Definitely Have Heart'

One of the oldest of show business axioms holds that in addition to talent, friends and the breaks, you also "gotta have heart" if you're planning on being a success.

And entertainers in the Palm Springs desert area definitely have got heart.

THIS WEEK, at the behest of the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce, musicians from four resorts decided they'd try and make Christmas happier for underprivileged youngsters.

"Every year," explained Palm Desert Chamber President Phil Franklin, "the organization tries to raise money to buy Christmas gifts for kids of this area, who wouldn't normally have a very merry Christmas."

SPURRED BY HIS request, Keith White and Bob Murtha of the Firecliff Lodge, Johnny (Ace) Balkin of the Desert Air Hotel, Tex Kidwell of the El Mirador Hotel and the Mason and Dixon Trio from Desi Arnaz' Western Hills Hotel jumped on a bandwagon of their own making.

"Let's play benefits for the Chamber's drive," suggested Kidwell.

"Great," chorused the others.

CATHEDRAL CITY MAN ARRESTED IN MISSISSIPPI

Phillip Murtha, 33, of Cathedral City, a carnival worker, was held today in Vicksburg, Miss., on charges of assault with intent to kill another carnival worker after an argument over a lost suitcase.

Vicksburg authorities said the shooting occurred Friday. The victim was identified as Leo Schragar, 35, of Venice, Calif., reported in critical condition at Mercy Hospital with side and chest wounds.

Mrs. Renee Perry, 26, a showgirl with the carnival, was held in Warren County Jail as a material witness. Police said she was with the two men before the shooting.

County Attorney George Chaney said Murtha was accused of shooting Schragar in Murtha's room in the Jefferson Davis Hotel in Vicksburg. He said the three registered together at the hotel Friday morning and that the shooting followed later over the suitcase.

$1 with 50 per cent of that total to go to the Palm Desert Chamber's fund.

"We usually try to dodge benefits," Dick Mason, who plays string bass in the Mason and Dixon Trio, said. "Mostly, they're not worth doing. Usually, they're for someone or something that doesn't even need to save the money."

"BUT THIS ONE," he shook his head expressively. "Give us all of these you can get."

Keith White agreed. "It makes you feel you're playing for a real reason," he said. And Johnny (Ace) Balkin, who played benefits last year that netted over $400 for Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation, said that he could hardly wait for Tuesday to arrive.

"THESE ARE THE kind of things that musicians wait for," he smiled. "We play benefits and benefits but we don't get to play for kids very often."

Two free dinners at each of the three hotels will be offered as additional prizes in the Chamber program.

And when the three concerts are over and the Chamber gets its money, they'll get a Santa Claus, a Christmas tree, trimmings and presents and throw a Christmas party the likes of which kids around the desert communities have never seen before.

No Fudge

Fudge Being Sold By Ambassadors

No fudge, you can still buy fudge in town.

The Palm Springs Student Ambassadors, that tight-knit group of teenagers bent on sending members of their organization to Washington, D. C., for an appraisal of the methods of government, have decided to keep their fudge sale in process throughout the school year.

BUT THE LOCATION is changed. Instead of selling their fudge—all hand-made by Ambassadors themselves—from in front of the Bank of America, the high schoolers have moved their operations to Henry Paul's Mobilgas Station, at 1708 North Palm Canyon Drive.

The sale officially began at 9 a.m., today, with the going rate at 50 cents a half pound.

"IT'S YUMMY," said Gail Chiha and Cathy Paul, co-spokesmen for the Ambassadors.

In fact, the girls report, it's so good that they may make a pretty huge dent in the fudge supply themselves.

Gala Villa Busy Over Weekend

PALM DESERT—Georgia and Layton Waterman of the Gala Villa are hosting a fullhouse over Thanksgiving weekend.

Included among their guests are Mr. and Mrs. Orville Rott of Bel Air, Mrs. Rott is the former social secretary of Mrs. Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Stanley S. Simonson and Stanley, Jr. of Pebble Beach, where Mr. Simonson is well known in financial circles, and Dr. and Mrs. S. Burton Martin of Encino.

Safety Slogan Is Announced

"Cross Streets on Green Lights Only" is the safety slogan for Palm Springs school children during the week of Dec. 1.

Youngsters will repeat the slogan as they board and leave school buses every day of the week. A new slogan is offered each week.

Carnes' Host Turkey Dinner

PALM DESERT—Mr. and Mrs. Don Carnes, of Ironwood Street, hosted a Thanksgiving dinner which included their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Geissell and son, Kurt of Palms Verdes Estates; Mr. Carnes' mother, Mr. J. K. Phillips of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kirk of Adywild, and Mrs. Mabel Fischer of Palm Springs.

Latest Delicacy Guaranteed Safe

LONDON, (UPI) — The latest food delicacy here is seasoned bumblebee at 70 cents per can. They are "guaranteed stingless."

Meiselman reported that bulldozers are completing their work in the area and that the initial phase of actual construction will be launched on Monday. Twenty-five palm trees were planted yesterday, he said.

"We're actually ahead of our schedule," Meiselman said.

SEWERS HAVE BEEN completed on three streets, he said, with the "problem" sewer—located on Via Marileste—the only one yet to be completed. He said that he intended to "try to negotiate further with the city on the subject of the pump."

"I'm the first builder in town to be asked to install such an addition to a sewer line," he said. "I think we ought to try and work out a more equitable arrangement."

MEISELMAN FORECAST that he would have nine of his Chino Palms Estates homes completed within three weeks and added that the other 36 would follow immediately.

"Several of them have already been sold," he said.

The homes, designed to sell for $16,950, are all custom-designed with many of the customized features of Meiselman's Palm Lane Estates homes. All are located within walking distance of the Village, he said.

Surprise Party Honors Mrs. Audrey Walker

PALM DESERT — A Thanksgiving motif of autumn foods and flowers gave a delightful atmosphere to the surprise birthday party honoring Mrs. Audrey Walker at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Coates.

Following cocktails, a buffet dinner was served poolside on the Coates' patio and gift-opening was enjoyed.

Included among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Frantz, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foster and their children, Carol and Mark, and Mrs. William Spork and Mr. and Mrs. Shirley. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Atland, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Torrey, Miss Ann Fitzgerald and Mr. and Mrs. William Boland of Rancho Mirage.

Franklyn MacCarthy Rites To Be Conducted Tuesday

Funeral services for Franklyn Bullard MacCarthy, 62, a Palm Springs resident for 15 years until his death here Thursday, will be held at 1 p.m., Tuesday in the Little Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn.

Entombment is scheduled for Forest Lawn in Glendale following the service.

MACCARTHY DIED here suddenly after spending Thanksgiving with his family in his home at 1323 San Lorenzo. He had not been ill. He collapsed shortly after dinner and was pronounced dead on arrival at Desert Hospital.

He was born in Buffalo, N. Y., and attended normal school at Buffalo, the Staunton Military Academy at Staunton Va., Canisius College at Buffalo and the Northwestern University of Law at Los Angeles.

In 1932, he launched his law practice in Los Angeles and was associated during various phases of his career with Judge Ingall W. Bull and Republican National Committeeman Edward S. Shattuck.

HE WAS PRESIDENT of Madrid Corp., a home and subdivision construction company. He was also a past president of Phi Delta, the legal fraternity, and was chairman of Formal Committee No. 8 for the State Bar Association of California. He served, additionally, on other committees for the association.

He is survived by his wife, Lillian, two daughters, Mrs. Lorraine MacCarthy Hogan and Mrs. Virginia MacCarthy Heinz, and three grandchildren.

Jack Meiselman Continues Chino Palms Estates Project

Jack Meiselman, longtime Village home builder, said today that he does not intend to halt construction of a 45-home development on Vista Chino because of a city demand for a $3,000 pump in the sewer system.

"We are actually expediting our work on Chino Palms Estates," Meiselman told The Desert Sun. He had been quoted yesterday as having declared that he would halt construction of the project if the city insisted on installation of the pump at his expense.

"I DO NOT INTEND to delay a quarter million dollar development over a $3,000 pump," the builder said.

Meiselman reported that bulldozers are completing their work in the area and that the initial phase of actual construction will be launched on Monday. Twenty-five palm trees were planted yesterday, he said.

"We're actually ahead of our schedule," Meiselman said.

SEWERS HAVE BEEN completed on three streets, he said, with the "problem" sewer—located on Via Marileste—the only one yet to be completed. He said that he intended to "try to negotiate further with the city on the subject of the pump."

Dear Abby...

... by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I have been interested in the number of occasions on which you advise some person who is in difficulty to see his minister. In fact, I sometimes wonder what you would tell a minister who needed advice. A minister isn't God. He only works for HIM, and ministers have their problems too. To whom would you send a minister?

Yours truly,

MINISTER

DEAR MINISTER: A minister must seek strength for himself from the same source he prescribes for others. He will find it in the Gospel he preaches.

DEAR ABBY: I have been married 27 years, am of average intelligence and think I am broad-minded, but why does this problem bother me when it doesn't seem to bother anybody else? We have friends who have made a fortune in the junk business (they call it "scrap") and now they have a beautiful home filled with "art" which I can't even look at without blushing. There are pictures of naked women and statues of naked men and ladies wrapped up in each other. I don't mind naked children, but I can't look at naked adults in mixed company. I refuse to go to these people's home, and my husband says I'm either evil-minded or not grown up. Am I in the wrong?

BLUSHING

DEAR BLUSHING: Evil (like beauty) lies in the mind of the beholder. Go but don't give these embarrassing objects a glance or a second thought. Museums, art galleries and even churches have dealt in nakedness for centuries. These are bare facts.

DEAR ABBY: I am ten years old and not very smart in school. But smart enough to know what that teen-ager meant about her fat sloppy mother. My dear mother was once everything this girl said her mother was. About 20 months ago I came home from school and found my mother lying on the floor. She didn't know anything. She was in the hospital for weeks. She had too much sugar. And now she has to take a shot before meals. She weighed over 200 pounds. But now she weighs 130. She is neat and clean and as sweet as she can be. Abby, underneath all the sloppy fat was the most wonderful mother in all the world. I couldn't sleep at night for thinking about this. I beg this girl to take her mother to a doctor.

BEN YOST ROYAL GUARDS, above, bring forth a continual tide of applause during their exciting singing act in the Chi Chi Starlite Room. A trio of handsome six-footers-plus, their outstanding solo voices, excellent choral effects, and great showmanship bring them ovations during and after each number. They even go into a hilarious slapstick comedy routine with glamorous Marie Wilson, the show's headliner. Comic Buddy Lester, an all-time Chi Chi favorite, provokes fits of leg-slapping laughter during his contribution to the entertainment-studded show.

Irrigation System

Police Building Landscaping Okehed

Installation of an automatic irrigation system and plans for landscaping of the new Palm Springs Police Building are under way today.

City Council members approved a building budget increase to cover the cost of the irrigation, designed to cut labor costs, and landscaping and site development of the police facility.

AT THE SAME time, the council approved relocation of the Health Center building in the new Civic Center, but decided not to move the health center's garage.

City Manager R. W. Peterson said the irrigation system would add $2,500 to the budget. Landscaping will cost about $5,000 and site improvements, including curbs and gutters, adds another $1,700.

PETERSON NOTED, however, that construction costs of the new police facility will still be well within the overall building budget. Following council approval, the Heath Center building now located on Amado Road will be transplanted to the southeast corner of Civic Drive and El Cielo.

Everyone Has Part To Play In Pride and Shine Week

Although "Pride and Shine" Week is being officially sponsored by the City Council and Chamber of Commerce as primarily a Palm Springs project, residents of the entire desert area are also urged to take an active part in seeing that every neighborhood is given a thorough grooming.

While a concerted campaign will be conducted by a large committee within the limits of the City, cleanliness and an attractive appearance is desirable in all parts of our popular resort region.

Yards, vacant property, curbs, sidewalks, roadsides and all places open to view of the thousands of visitors who will be touring town and country this year should be scrupulously tidied up so that everyone will form a good impression of the neatness which prevails, and enjoy the natural beauties and advantages of the scenic surroundings.

We have a large head-start over most communities due to the fact that on the whole our homes, business buildings, hotels, streets, parks, yards and public places are pleasingly designed and landscaped. The majority are also well kept.

It remains only for everyone to look around their own respective properties to remove any signs of neglect or unsightly accumulations. In most cases the work or attention involved is a small matter, but with thousands of people cooperating in their own individual "clean-up" campaigns, the composite total means a completely clean and "shining" community in which we can all take real pride.

"Pride and Shine" Week is an entirely local event and dependent directly upon desert dwellers for its success. It so happens that due to our sunny winters the beginning of the season is the most desirable time for everyone to put their premises in order rather than in the Spring of the year which is customarily observed in snow-laden areas as National Clean-Up Week.

The dates of Dec. 1 to 6 are admirably suited to the most important period of the year for putting our places in order to receive the legions of visitors who will arrive within our gates in the months just ahead.

Let everyone in Palm Springs and the surrounding communities join in an energetic old-fashioned spirit of prideful cleaning until everything literally shines to all beholders.

Pride and Shine Week is something in which every man, woman and child can play an important part. In fact, it cannot be a complete success unless you, too, do your part.

We all take great pride in the marvelous place in which we live. That extra "shining" Dec. 1 to 6 will make it even better.

What About Coalition? ... 3

WASHINGTON, D. C.—"Nothing cares!" lamented a character in a well-known Lost Generation novel of more than 30 years past.

American conservatives feel that way—or almost do—about the state of the American Union.

In the election just past, people voted (with a few honorable exceptions) for their pocketbooks and "welfare." The trade unions were for Labor, the internationalists were for the internationalists, the two national parties had one eye on the organization of the 86th Congress and one on the next presidential election. But about the sovereignty of the States and nation, the imperiled solvency of public credit, the principles of rugged individualism and freedoms—no government, who cared?

IT IS AROUND this intangible, almost indefinable "cause" that the American fundamentalists or conservatives hope to stage a rally. After canvassing the field more than a little, I conclude that the only blanket to cover the American conservative movement is the emotional one. They are the persons who care.

Southerners care in a passionate manner about their State and their race. They have scores of noble examples in John Randolph, Robert E. Lee, Patrick Henry, Luther Martin and John C. Calhoun, men who held Virginia, Maryland or South Carolina to be their "country."

THE SENSE OF State devotion still remains in the South. Southerners of the white race do not, as outsiders seem to think and seemingly like to think, hate Negroes. But Southern whites do care tremendously about the integrity of their own race, as do the Irish, the Jews, the Icelanders and many other proud peoples. All this caring makes for conservatism in the South.

There are persons who care in a passionate manner about their country and its symbols; the flag, the anthem, the anniversaries, the good name. These persons are often excited and given to being demonstrative about their feelings. They often overstate their patriotism by denouncing other countries. Their fervor at times makes them fair game for the fun-pokers.

BUT WHEN ALL IS said and done, there is nothing very much pernicious about loving one's country. It is an extension of many other loves, commencing with one's mother and extending to one's children and home. If you think that this idea is the wicked invention of a modern reactionary, the following definition was given in the House of Representatives some 142 years ago:

... the love of country is nothing more than the love of every man for his wife, child or friend."

Such patriotic persons, often called "patrioters" in derision, are natural conservatives.

THERE ARE OTHERS who care very deeply about the solvency of the national treasury. This concern in part has something to do with honor and integrity. The character of the United States is injured when Congress (except under the direst necessity of war or depression) spends more than it is willing to tax.

The concern over fiscal soundness also relates to the character of the American people who—as all conservatives believe—are being corrupted by Federal bribery. Economizers are not selfish, illiberal persons, as falsely pictured by their enemies. They are moral persons who set great store by ideals and principles.

FINALLY, THERE ARE persons who care profoundly about their oaths of office. The first of the Ten Commandments reads: "Thou shalt have no other gods before me." Well, the oath taken by a member of Congress and of the Armed Services says substantially the same thing—nothing comes ahead of the U. S. A. This is not "isolationism" in any sense.

In covering the recent Arizona Senate elections, I found the Democrat McFarland featuring himself as the "man who puts Arizona first." I found the Republican Goldwater saying "I put the United States first." Which man was the isolationist?

GOLDWATER MEANT, as he told me, that he had agreed to abandon certain military installations and to forego certain Federal aids to Arizona on the grounds that the strength of the United States is the best warranty of Arizona's freedom and prosperity.

"At this session," said Goldwater, "I intend to raise the question of the oath—of office which Senators take to the United States."

Here, then, are several groups of persons with one common characteristic—they care. But can the conservatives get together? That's another question. —Holmes Alexander

Practical Training

DUNN, N. C. UPB—There was no shortage of manpower Monday night when fire broke out in a cotton gin here. Firemen from 12 counties were participating in a training program 5 yards away from the gin.

Worried About Child

TOULOUSE, France UPB—The oldest living Frenchwoman, 105-year-old Mme. Louis Blanc, arrived here from Paris Monday night on the first airplane ride of her life, accompanied by her 81-year-old daughter, Lea. Mme. Blanc said the only concern she had felt on the hop was for the comfort of "my little girl," who "isn't used to traveling."

Sailing on Foam

BERWICK, England. UPB—Crewmen from the German timber freighter Erich Haslinger staggered ashore Thursday and reported they ran out of drinking water but managed to last 24 hours on beer.

That Was No Burglar

RALEIGH, N. C. UPB—Tolbert S. Wall came home the other night without his key and found the door locked. He started to crawl into the house through a window when he was bashed in the face with a blunt object. Wall's wife said she thought he was a burglar.

Service With a Frown

KENNER, La. UPB—It was a busy night for service station manager O. C. Long. While he was working on a woman's car, she gave birth to a daughter on the front seat. A few hours later a motorist drove up and robbed Long of $130. He's thinking of getting out of the service station business.

How's your bank balance? Do you with riches reek? The next seven days Form Prosperity Week.

As noted before, there are more special weeks observed in the nation than you could crowd into seven years.

And next week is one of them.

IT'S MORE TIMELY, too. National Prosperity Week. November 30 to December 6.

Then come 15 shopping days before Christmas.

The bankroll will be depleted, there'll be no jingle in the change pocket or rustle in the wallet.

So they set aside the week of November 30 to December 6 as National Prosperity Week.

Figuring that's the last chance before the slow process of recuperating before April 15 and the Man With the Whiskers.

(Tax bills are due December 10, by the way.)

NOW I KNOW what has happened to our usually clear, sunny skies.

I thought it was clouds creeping over San Jacinto.

But it's just jet planes, leaving vapor trails in the sky. The Chamber of Commerce is taking action and asking them to quit messing up our skies.

I know a medical man who specializes in heart ailments who also objects to those vapor trails.

Says they look like cardiograms and he almost wrecked his car the other day, trying to read one of them.

TURN INDICATORS on automobiles are a great help—when they work. But it's sometimes disconcerting when the driver is unaware that his right turn indicator is still working when he turns left.

That happened down on Ramon the other day when a motorist dutifully turned on the left flashing light when he passed another car, and then the right, when he got back to his own lane. But he forgot it.

Prompted some uncouth language on the part of the usually unprovoked gentleman chauffeur me.

NEXT MONDAY is December 1 and the month, besides Christmas, has two other big dates for Palm Springs.

New buildings will be dedicated by two important institutions, both of which are of great value to the community.

First, on December 5, the new Palm Springs Desert Museum building on Tahquitz Drive will be formally opened.

Then on December 14, the handsome new Boys' Club on Sunrise Way, will be dedicated. Both of these new buildings fill an important phase of Village life.

DID YOU EVER stop to think why men's styles do not change like women's do? The reason men's suits this year look like last year's suits?

It's because they are last year's suits.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

Well, the long, cold winter evenings are upon us. A blazing fire in the fireplace. And the homestead snuggled down under a warm mortgage.

I am in great demand when the days are short and the tricycle is stowed away in the attic. There is a suspicion around the scatter that I am a fair hand at storytelling.

"Once upon a time, there was a rabbit..."

FOR A WHILE I purchased children's books and read them aloud. But the plot was so boring, I lost interest.

The rabbits in children's books are a bunch of flop-eared do-gooders. They have no appeal to me. The rabbits in the book are always picking berries for their mother. She will make them a berry pie.

AFTER HEARING THIS, my 3-year-old boy went out and picked all the lemons off the lemon tree. He picked the green ones and the ripe ones and put them in the red wagon and dumped them down the hill.

I consider this a fair literary criticism.

MY RABBITS in my stories are turning out pretty well. I am wondering what they will do next myself.

"Once upon a time there was a rabbit..."

"Peter Rabbit?"

"No. This rabbit's name was Harry the Hustler. He was a bank robber. He robbed carrot banks."

LET ME TELL YOU, Harry the Hustler is quite a rabbit.

First place, he is no Flopsy Cottontail. He is a galloping Jack rabbit. He can lick any rabbit in our part of the country.

One way he keeps so strong is he eats all his vegetables. (I would rather feed this rabbit nothing but raw meat. But we have to get a commercial into the story.)

GRIN AND BEAR IT By LICHTY

NEW YORK—Steve McQueen's as part of the scene. I forgot we were acting. I let her have a short one.

"She went down. I was scared to death."

Steve was ashamed and stayed away from class briefly.

"They all had loot in that class. If they got sassy, I'd pop 'em. I don't do that any more..."

In fact, it's almost miraculous what Sanford Meisner, the Actors Studio and others molded from this truck driver, mechanic, TV repairman and odd-jobs guy who at 25 is not fully appreciative of his CBS-TV success.

"They're trying to make me a big hero because of these ratings," he said.

"I'm no hero, I'm just trying to stay alive in this world."

Married to beautiful actress Neile Adams — "We're expecting a boy child," he says — they just bought a Hollywood home.

"Five years ago I couldn't make enough to get on the subway," Steve marvels. "Now I've got two cars..."

"First I had a Ferrari and was racing it till Dick Powell's office heard about it. Since I'm working for them, they made me quit."

"I also had a Corvette," he mentioned.

"I was in St. Louis when I got a call from Neile. She said, 'Honey, don't get mad. I banged the Corvette a little'."

"I looked at it. It is demolished. It is a total! She got stuck happy. She didn't just hit a car, she hit a parking lot. Of all the cars she hit to start with, she picked on a Lincoln Continental!"

I asked Steve if it was true he once belted a disc jockey. Steve nodded unhappily. "I'm not much for violence," he said. "I picked him up afterward and bought him coffee."

The Week-End Windup... "Don't Print That!" One of the TV quiz shows sends aides to neighboring supermarkets coaxing shoppers to come in and sit in the audience... A famous foreign actress is barred from establishing permanent residence in California (result of an old police charge).

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Top Stars Working

HOLLYWOOD—There've been more top stars working at NBC-Burbank than at all the movie studios in town, with five Christmas shows in rehearsal or being taped simultaneously.

Truly an autographland's paradise: Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Betty Grable, Dean Martin, Jimmy Durante, Ralph Edwards, Milton Berle, Wally Cox, Phil Harris, Polly Bergen, Janis Paige, Jon Arnett, Carl Reiner. And not one single, solitary signature shatterer in sight, because the schedules are so fast and furious the network hasn't been allowing any visitors except newsmen like myself.

RALPH EDWARDS, preparing for This Is Your Life next door to Bob Hope, strolled past the Hope set and straightfaced to Ski-Nose: "It could be you're lifting tonight!" — thereby throwing the whole set into an uproar... No, it wasn't Hope this time.

Dean Martin, taping his Martin-Crosby-Harris starrer ahead of time in case the threatened TV technicians' strike went through, tossed his sponsor into a tizzy when they told him the show was running too long.

Bing said, "Let's throw out 'White Christmas.'" Dean said, "Not on your life — if anything gets cut, it's the commercial!" Whereupon the sponsor reached for his aspirin... No, they didn't cut "White Christmas" — OR the commercial!

CARL REINER and Pete Lawford are luring Barbara Britton to co-star in Head of the Family, the new Reiner series co-produced by Carl and Pete... John Frankenheimer put this sign up outside the Playhouse 90 set, where he's directing William Faulkner's "The Old Man": "This Set Is Absolutely Closed to EVERYONE!" (signed) John Frankenheimer.

Red Skelton, within an hour, put this sign up outside his set, across the hall from Frankenheimer's: "EVERYONE Except John Frankenheimer Is Most Welcome to This Set (signed) Red Skelton."

AN HOUR LATER, this sign appeared outside a neighboring set: "This Set Is Not Open to Red Skelton, or John Frankenheimer — Only to Those Connected with My Sponsors, White Star Tuna, Kellogg's, Swift's, Carnation, Chase & Sanborn, Gro-Pup, Royal Gelatin and Dove Soap (signed) Art Linkletter."

George Gobel flies to Tulsa Saturday (Dec-6) to forge the 14th link in his motel chain... Dec. 31 is the deadline for Los Angeles screenings of entries in the Academy Awards Derby next April 6. So tomorrow (Dec. 1) Tony Martin, Shirley Jones and David Rose will get the jump on everybody on Voice of Firestone by presenting all the Oscar-winning tunes from 1934 to 1957.

COMEDIANS DAN Rowan and Dick Martin claim they're finally in The Big Money with a new sideline — supplying the oil to lubricate the hinges on that door through which Loretta Young swishes every Sunday.

There are big TV plans afoot for "The Glass Menagerie," the play that brought Laurette Taylor back as a star, established Tennessee Williams as a major playwright and won every major dramatic award from the Pulitzer to the Donaldson after it opened in Chicago's Little Theatre back in the early '40s.

PLAYHOUSE 90 wants it but it may mean as a spec, depending on Williams, with Shirley Booth and Marlon Brando in the Taylor-Eddie Dowling parts, Eva Marie Saint in Julie Hayden's spot as the crippled girl and Karl Malden in the late Tony Ross role as The Gentleman Caller.

Omnibus is buggin' Jimmy Durante to play a serious role, following the offbeat trail blazed by another comedian — turned tragedian, Ed Wynn... It's okay with the "Far-Down" Irish: Sir Laurence Olivier won a license to operate a TV station in Ireland — NORTHERN Ireland!

WHATEVER HAPPENED to Gisele MacKenzie? She's co-starring with John Raitt and Eddie Foy Jr. in a G. E. Theatre telefilm, "The Taming of the Squaw," with words & music by the Oscar-winning Jay Livingston and Ray Evans and choreography by Gower Champion.

Ida Lupino and Howard Duff signed silent screen star Ramon Novarro as a regular in their new telefilm series, Green Peacock, to be shot in Mexico... Bettines, Miss Lupino, is directing a Have Gun, Will Travel segment, making her the first femmegophone-wielder on a TV Western.

Ginger Rogers is polishing up her cleats to whirl through a new song-&-dance musical series for NBC... Janis Paige credits Bob Hope for her "comeback" as a comedienne: "You know, I had never been given the opportunity to play really far-out, broad comedy until that wonderful man cast me in 'Roberta.' He encouraged me to do some real screwball stuff on that show and all of a sudden I'm living again, with more job offers than I can handle!"

IT'S A DRAW, PARDNER, says "Six-Gun" Frank Bogert after slapping leather with the "fastest gun in the West"—blonde, sharp-eyed Cindy Lou Dahl. Cindy Lou, 28-year-old Riverside radio personality and quick-drawing star of scores of rodeos and television shows, rode into the Village this week and challenged Mayor Bogert to a stand up, face-to-face duel to settle once and for all the question of who's the fastest gun in the West. But Cindy Lou, whose split-second draw has qualified television Wyatt Earp (Hugh O'Brian) and settled the hash of Wells Fargo's Jim Hardie (Dale Robertson), found herself face to face with unholstered steel when Bogert's greased lightning draw had his hand on the gun when the "draw" signal sounded) matched her own supersonic six-gun action. ## Brown to Offer Legislature 23-Point Labor Program

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Third of six dispatches describing the legislative program of Governor-elect Edmund G. (Pat) Brown and the problems he faces in his new administration.)

By JAMES C. ANDERSON
United Press International

SACRAMENTO — (UPI) — The key issue in the recent gubernatorial election was the battle between Governor-elect Edmund G. (Pat) Brown and his Republican opponent Sen. William F. Knowland over labor union reforms.

Knowland fought for Proposition 13, the so-called right-to-work initiative which would outlaw the union shop. Brown opposed it, called it "an invitation to class warfare."

THE PEOPLE SPOKE on Nov.

4 — and right-to-work and Knowland went down to defeat. But there was more to the labor issue than right-to-work. Knowland espoused a detailed program for what he called a "Workers' Bill of Rights" or "Union Democracy." It was a program designed to curb what the Senator described as labor racketeers and bosses who abused their powers and created dictatorship and corruption at the expense of the rank-and-file.

BROWN, TOO, OFFERED the voters a specific 23-point program which he said would assure democracy in unions and would be an impartial aid to the collective bargaining process. Both the Brown and Knowland programs, oddly enough, were alike in a great many recommendations.

Now that Brown is about to take over the reins of state government his labor program merits close inspection. This is what he proposes and says he will submit to the legislature in January: "IMPARTIAL MACHINERY" through which employees by secret ballot could vote for or against a particular union as their bargaining agent. The machinery also could be used to settle pending claims to collective bargaining rights between more than one union.

—A law to assure that no employee could be discriminated against—either by union or management—because of race, creed, color, religion or age.

—It shall be a crime for an employer to offer money or anything of value to a union official or representative of a welfare fund with intent to influence his acts. It also should be a crime for a union official to solicit or agree to accept money from an employer to influence his acts.

UNION CONSTITUTIONS or by laws should contain these provisions:

—At least 10 regular meetings should be held each year; specific notice of time and place must be published in advance; minutes of such meetings must be kept and made available to members; business may not be conducted at a meeting unless a quorum is present; election of officers shall be by secret ballot; such elections shall take place at least every three years; reasonable opportunity must be given to nominate candidates for office; specific notice of elections and opportunity to vote must be guaranteed.

Choral Litany To Open Advent Season Sunday

Tomorrow, the first Sunday in Advent, a Choral Litany will be sung by the choir and congregation of St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church at the 11 a.m. service to mark the opening of the Advent season. Morning Prayer will follow the Litany.

During this service, the rector will read the Pastoral Letter issued by the House of Bishops at their recent meeting in general convention. According to Canon Law of the Episcopal Church, it is the duty of each minister to read the Pastoral Letter at Sunday worship service not later than one month after its issuance.

Other services tomorrow will include Holy Communion at 8 a.m., Family Service at 9:15 a.m., followed by church school classes for all ages, nursery through adults. Children will observe their first Advent candle lighting ceremony during the Family Service, a traditional ceremony continued through the Advent Sundays in preparation for the coming of Christ.

Heralds of Christ To Be Sunday Worship Service

PALM DESERT — "Heralds of Christ" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. Warren C. McClain at the 11 a.m. Sunday worship service at the Palm Desert Community Church.

Mrs. Clifford Young will sing a solo, "Prayer Perfect." On Sunday at 3 p.m. the Christian Youth Fellowship will attend a Desert Christian Youth rally at the Community Church in Palm Springs. This will replace the regular weekly meeting.

There are 800,000 people in the U.S. who have been cured of cancer.

Lesson-Sermon Sunday Will Denounce Evil

The necessity of gaining spiritual dominion over hate, envy, revenge, lust and all evil practices through the spiritual understanding of the love and power of God is brought out in the Lesson-Sermon "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alchemy, Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced," delivered at the Sunday Christian Science church services.

In the summation of the sermon a Bible selection from the Revelation of John is read. John writes, "Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world . . . Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God" (3:10, 12).

"Christians must take up arms against error at home and abroad," reads a companion reference from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. It continues, "They must grapple with sin in themselves and in others, and continue this warfare until they have finished their course. If they keep the faith, they will have the crown of rejoicing" (p. 29).

The Golden Text is from Isaiah (59:19), "When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him."

Color Film to Be Shown Sunday

A sound-color film that details the struggle of a missionary family in evangelizing heathen South Americans will be presented at 7 p.m., Sunday, in Desert Chapel here.

The name of the picture is "Beyond the Bells." The Desert Chapel is located at 630 Vella Road.

CUB SCOUTS from four dens of Pack 80, sponsored by the B. P. O. Elks Lodge 1905, made a recent trip to the newly constructed Desert Museum. They were shown a motion picture and then taken on

'Better Covenant' To Be Sermon At Community

Twin sermons on the subject of "A Better Covenant" — taken from the New Testament Epistle to the Hebrews—will be the topic for Dr. James H. Blackstone Jr. when services convene Sunday at Community Church here.

Dr. Blackstone will preach at 9:30 and 11 a.m. Gounod's "O Divine Redeemer" will be the anthem for the Chancel Choir, with Elmer Young directing and Lois Lux at the organ.

Nursery is conducted during both services. In the evening, at 6:15 p.m., youth groups and high school young people will both hold services in the church.

What's Ahead

MILWAUKEE — (UPI) —The electrical appliance industry will begin to tool up in the early 1960's for new time and labor savings devices described as "revolutionary" according to Electrical Merchandising Magazine.

By 1975, the magazine estimates all rooms in houses will be air-conditioned and windows will close automatically if it rains. The front door will be opened by pressing one's thumb on a scanning lock attuned to the resident's fingerprint. The old style dishwasher will be replaced by an ultrasonic model that cleans and dries everything in three minutes, and puts them away too — a new washer-dryer will do the laundry in 30 minutes, even folding the clothes.

"PRIDE AND SHINE WEEK" opens at 8 a.m. Monday when a brigade of some 50 volunteer clean-up workers scour the city in a massive litter clearance program. To speed the clean-up work, the city has been divided into specific areas which will be visited by crews from designated organizations. Groups participating are the Rotary and Optimist Clubs, Palm Springs Mounted Police, Los Compadres Club, Exchange Club, Palm Springs Real Estate Board, Lions and Kiwanis Clubs, the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Hotel and Apartment Association.

Council Decides It's Two Premises In Lieu Payment Studied

Now that they've decided that it's a horse of a different color, City Council members are today pondering whether a proposed downtown restaurant should pay an extra premium for its lack of parking area.

Council members earlier this week were called on to decide whether a premises with a partially dividing wall, two separate entrances and a common basement is (or are) one store or two.

CONVERTING A planning commission ruling the council decided that two separate premises are existing in the area in question—now they've got to decide whether in lieu parking fees should be levied against the lessee.

The store (or stores) in question carries the addresses of 160 and 156 North Palm Canyon Drive, both a part of The Center building.

A drug store and fountain grill formerly occupied the area of 160 and a liquor shop occupied 156 but the question was—do these comprise one master store or two separate facilities?

OPERATORS OF The Center decided they wanted to move the restaurant facility to the area formerly occupied by the liquor shop, which was separated by a wall having two connecting archways.

City planning commissioners ruled that it was one premise, and, therefore, not liable to in lieu parking fees which might be required if it were two premises; meaning that the restaurant move would be an expansion of non-conforming use and subject to possible fees based on a lack of adequate parking area.

ATTORNEY WARREN Slaughter, representing The Center, presented the council with voluminous documentary evidence which, he asserted, proved that the premises was but one premise.

Slaughter claimed that a master lease once existed and that the liquor shop, fountain-grill and drug store were operating on a sub-lease basis.

It was pointed out by protestants that the areas in question were also individually leased.

THE PLANNING commission had previously ruled that the areas were considered one premise for many years and were, in fact, but one premise.

Protests against the planned fountain move were lodged with the council by Edwin Landfield, Maston's Restaurant and other restaurant owners.

All pointed out that they were not opposed to competition, but claimed that the proprietors of the disputed cafe should be required to pay in lieu fees just like we did.

THE COUNCIL voted four-to-two in favor of the two premises decision. Councilmen Ted McKinney and Frank Bogert voted no while Councilwoman Mary Carlin abstained from voting.

"I can't make up my mind whether this is one store or two," she explained.

The council decided to take under advisement the question of whether in lieu parking fees should be levied against the cafe.

"IT'S THE FIRST THING I ever won in my life," said Albert F. Mayer, of 653 D Street, Cathedral City, when he stopped by to pick up the bicycle he netted from opening festivities at the opening of Sears, Roebuck new mail order catalogue store here. Mayer pedaled his way around the store to test his prize. (Desert Sun Photo).

Harris Appointed as New Fire Prevention Inspector

A new position in the Palm Springs Fire Department—that of Fire Prevention Inspector—was filled today with the appointment of James E. Harris.

The appointment was announced by Fire Marshal Warren Heath after a promotional examination. Harris will be given the pay scale of a fire engineer, and a vacancy existing for an additional fireman will be filled later. Robert W. Peterson, city manager, reported that the new position established in the 1958-59 fiscal budget called for the promotion of a man to the rank of engineer and allowed the hiring of a new fireman.

Harris, who has been with the local department since 1951, will start his new job as a full-time aide to Fire Marshal Heath on Dec. 1.

Chamber Sets Membership Record in 1958

Like the Village itself, the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce has recorded a new record total enrollment for the first 10 months of 1958.

Membership Committee Chairman Harold West said yesterday that the Chamber now lists a grand total of 700 members, which includes 26 new memberships taken out in October and 17 renewed memberships as against 19 cancellations.

October income from membership dues so far this year is $1,947. For the same month last year, membership dues accrued $1,637.

The Chamber's board of directors ordered commendations for Chamber Manager Jimmy Cooper and for Cub Parker, who is in charge of new memberships.

Constable Issues Appeal For List of 'Willing' Jurors

In an attempt to protect businessmen from having to take time away from their work to serve on a jury, Constable Howard Poe each year makes an appeal for a list of potential jurors to serve during the calendar year.

Poe this week again issued his appeal and asked that any person who would like to serve on a jury to submit his name to his office.

He pointed out that in order to qualify to serve on a jury, the prospective juror must be a resident of Palm Springs Judicial District, which consists of Palm Springs, Cathedral City, Rancho Mirage, Palm Desert, Thousand Palms, North Palm Springs, or Garnet, and they must also be a registered voter.

Persons willing to serve on the jury may call Constable Poe at FA 5-6257 or write him at Drawer K, Palm Springs.

Rotary's Desert Council to Meet In Laurie Ranch

CATHEDRAL CITY—The Cathedral City Rotary Club will host the dinner meeting of the Rotary Desert Council Monday at Laurie's Steak Ranch. Dinner is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. followed by the business meeting.

The main topic to be discussed will be the club program for the ensuing year.

Represented in the Desert Council are the Rotary clubs of Beaumont, Banning, Desert Hot Springs, Indio, Blythe, Palm Springs, Palm Desert and Cathedral City.

Teams 'Strong' for Tilt Here

Warm-Up Wonby Sultans

From the looks of things, the Camp Pendleton Marines better bring some assault troops in addition to a football team when they arrive here Sunday for a little gridiron mayhem against the semi-pro Coachella Valley Sultans.

The game is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. on the football field at Palm Springs High School and is sponsored by the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce.

ON THURSDAY, instead of turkey dinner, the Sultans went to Thermal where they gobbled up the Torrance Athletic Club Steelers, 29-0.

The Sultans reported no injuries in Thursday's scuffle and the Pendleton club had already reported that it would be at "full strength" for Sunday's clash here.

The Sultans spotted the Steelers an average 11 pound per man weight advantage Thursday and then pushed their overburdened opposition around handily. They'll be giving away approximately the same edge to the Marines, who are loaded with star athletes from every corner of the nation.

THE SULTANS have a few "name" players themselves and one of those — ex-Tulane All American Al Robelot—figures the semi-pro Sultans will "either win or make it mighty close."

The Sultans scored in every period against the Steelers Thursday. They unleashed a versatile grid machine that indicated it can score on the ground, in the air or on field goals—as the occasion demands. What's more, the showing also indicated, they can score from close up or far out.

BUT SO CAN the Marines who have been able to shake their breakaway backs loose repeatedly this year against such ranking opposition as San Diego State College, the Eagle Rock Athletic Club and others.

Sponsored by the Palm Springs Chamber, the game will be followed on Dec. 7 by another tilt featuring the Sultans against the Seal Beach Sailors.

Mel Ott Widow 'Improved' After Tragic Accident

NEW ORLEANS, (AP) — Mrs. Mildred Ott, 49, continued to improve from critical injuries she suffered in an auto accident two weeks ago that claimed the life of her husband, ex-Giant baseball Hall of Famer Mel Ott.

Doctors at Baptist Hospital in New Orleans said Mrs. Ott will recover completely "unless unforeseen complications" arise.

"She is doing very well and is improving day by day," hospital authorities said.

Mrs. Ott sustained two broken legs, a broken arm, head and internal injuries in the accident which claimed the life of her husband and another man near Bay St. Louis, Miss., Nov. 14. She will undergo a third operation this week.

Cadilli Withdraws

HOLLYWOOD, (AP) — Gil Cadilli of San Francisco has withdrawn from tonight's bout with Mexican featherweight champion Victor Manuel Quijano because of a severe cold. Noel Humphreys of Charleston, W. Va., will substitute for Cadilli.

YESTERYEAR'S GOLFERS looked like Willard and Virginia Parker in this zany photo, used to accent the Palm Desert "Gay Nineties" pageant which runs from Dec. 3-7. The Parkers don't usually go golfing in this type of attire and figure that the duffers of 60 years ago really had things in shape if they could wear all that excess paraphernalia and still go around in less than 120.

'New Shift' Favored to Win Autumn 'Cap at Tanforan

SAN BRUNO, Calif. (AP) — An overflowing field of 15 was slated to head postward in the $10,000 added Autumn Handicap at Tanforan today, highlight of a nine-race card.

New Shift was slight favorite in the mile-and-a-sixteenth grind. He was high-weighted at 118 pounds and had the added disadvantage of having to start from the extreme outside in the huge field. Johnny Cantarini was set to ride New Shift.

AMONG THE longer - shots was Cold Steel, who is owned by the Summer, Wash. Chamber of Commerce. A large delegation from Summer was expected to be on hand to cheer the four-year-old son of Speculation, Merlin Volke was slated to ride him.

Friday's main go was captured by Haydn, four-year-old English bred colt, who caught favored Princess Street at the wire and returned $40.40 to a small band of brave and happy backers.

PETE MORENO was aboard Haydn, who dashed the six furlongs in 1:11 3/5. Spike finished third.

Tanforan officials announced the five - day suspension of jockeys Chloey Cunningham and Rudy Camas Friday for careless riding Thursday.

EARLY MORNING railbirds were treated to a workout by Silky Sullivan, who returns to action here Thursday.

DeJohn Cuts Up Besmanoff In TV Battle

German Requires 18 Stitches After Heavyweight Match

By JACK CUDDY
NEW YORK (AP) — Big Mike DeJohn — "the hardest hitting heavyweight in the business" — was offered a choice today of two January bouts with high contenders because of his slashing victory over Willie Besmanoff.

DeJohn, the jolting giraffe from Syracuse, N. Y., whose ripping uppercuts won a unanimous 10-round decision over stocky Besmanoff at Madison Square Garden, was offered another TV fight at the Garden and another video brawl at Syracuse.

GERMANY'S BESMANOFF — patched up with 18 stitches after the bloody fight, returned to his new American home at Milwaukee today while DeJohn was trying to decide which offer to accept. He is his own manager now.

At the finish Besmanoff was bleeding from cuts on both brows, under the left eye, on the right forehead and nose. DeJohn suffered some gashes, himself — on the right brow, right cheek and mouth — requiring nine stitches.

BUT MIKE was almost jacked-knifed by body blows in the first and seventh rounds. Willie was warned for low punches in the latter session.

An estimated 2,000 paid $5,000.

MAXWELL, LITTLER HEAD 'OPEN' LISTS AT INDIAN WELLS

Billy Maxwell and Gene Littler today headed the list of entrants for the $3,500 34-hole Southern California Open Golf Championships to be played next week at Indian Wells Country Club.

Littler holds three victories at Las Vegas, and Maxwell won this year's Memphis Colonial Invitational.

Backing up Littler and Maxwell will be a strong field of local pros, including defending champion Eric Monti.

El Centro Roms To Easy Victory Over CV's Arabs

EL CENTRO—Imperial Valley League co-champion El Centro pulverized RCL kinspin Coachella Valley by a staggering 34-7 count here last night, in a first round CIF playoff game.

The loss, which saw El Centro rack up 19 first downs to CV's none, eliminated the Arabs from the CIF title race.

Coachella Valley's only score came on a fluke when Arab quarterback picked up a stray El Centro lateral and raced 59 yards for the lone tally. Except for the single scoring run, CV's unwilling warriors were not able to penetrate deeper than the Spartan 46.

Ruling Bans Sugar Bowl Race Edict

NEW ORLEANS, (AP) — Clement and Southern Methodist remain top contenders today for an invitation to meet Louisiana State in the Jan. 1 Sugar Bowl, despite a Federal Court ruling that Louisiana's law forbidding interracial athletic events is unconstitutional.

A three-judge Federal court issued an injunction Friday against the enforcement of the 1936 segregation law, but a law prohibiting the mixing of spectators remained in effect.

Louisiana Attorney General Jack Gremlion said he would ask permission to file an immediate appeal, but added that the appeal could not be heard before the Sugar Bowl classic.

The segregated seating law disqualified the Air Force Academy from contention for the Sugar Bowl invitation, since the Falcons early this season cancelled a home and home contract with Tulane because of the seating requirements.

The Executive Committee of the Mid-Winter Sports Assn., which sponsors the Sugar Bowl classic, met late Friday to consider the Federal Court ruling, but issued no statement after the meeting.

The selection committee was scheduled to meet this afternoon to choose LSU's opponent.

RAMS 7-POINT PICK; COLTS CAN GAIN TIE

By JOE SARGIS
John Unitas, Lenny Moore and the other frisky Baltimore Colts are 13½ point choices to clinch at least a tie for the National Football League's Western Division title Sunday by defeating the visiting San Francisco Forty-Niners. A capacity crowd of 57,557 will attend the game.

The Browns, a game ahead of the New York Giants in the Eastern race, are 13½ point favorites to defeat the Washington Redskins at Cleveland before about 50,000.

Each of the 12 teams will have two more regular season games after Sunday's contests.

THE COLTS (8-1) are two games ahead of the runner-up Chicago Bears (6-3) and will capture the Western crown outright if they win and the Steelers (5-4) defeat the Bears at Pittsburgh. The Bears are 3½ point favorites but

PRO GRIDS SHOW MAJOR GAIN IN TOTAL ATTENDANCE

CHICAGO, (AP) — Professional football attendance has climbed 7.4 per cent over 1957, a United Press International survey today showed, with one-fourth of the season yet to be played.

Fans support the winner too, the figures showed, since Cleveland and Baltimore, the leaders of the National Football League's two divisions, showed the largest actual increase. Attendance at five home games of the Browns was up 53.901, the largest increase in the league, while the Colts' crowds increased 36,464, the second biggest increase.

The Los Angeles Rams showed the largest total attendance, 347,248, with an increase of 26,604 over 1957 with two games to play.

For 54 games, with 18 remaining on the schedule, the league as a whole drew 2,438,680 fans compared to 2,269,600 in 1957.

PUC to Hold Three Water Service Hearings

The California Public Utilities Commission will hold three days of hearings in Palm Springs next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Dec. 3 to 5, on the applications of three water companies to extend service in the area.

A hearing will be held on Wednesday in the American Legion Hall, 400 North Belardo Road, on the request of Harold J. Hicks, doing business as Palm Valley Water Co., for permission to extend its operations in the vicinity of Cathedral City, in an area east of Del Sol Road, adjacent to its present certificated area.

On Thursday the hearings will move to the Palm Springs City Hall on the application of Cathedral City Water Co. to extend service in Cathedral City in an area north and south of State Highway 111.

The application of the Palm Springs Water Co. for authority to extend service on all sides of its present certificated area in Palm Springs will also be held in Palm Springs City Hall on Friday.

The hearings will be held at 10 a.m. each day before Commissioner Ray E. Untereiner and Examiner Kent C. Rogers.

'Prophets' Is Topic At Community Church Sunday

CATHEDRAL CITY — The beginning of the Advent Season will be observed at the Cathedral City Community Church Sunday. The Rev. James W. Arnold will preach the sermon, "In The Prophets," first of a series of sermons entitled "How The Word Of God Gets Through."

The Youth Choir will sing "Lo, How A Rose Ere Blooming," by Praetorius, and the Sault Youth Choir will sing the German carol "Art Thou Come With Us To Dwell," under the direction of Mary Hoover.

Nursery will be provided for the morning service and the Church School for all ages is held at 9:30 a.m.

Book Review for Church Women

CATHEDRAL CITY — Approximately 100 were in attendance at the program sponsored by the Women's Association of the Cathedral City Community Church Tuesday when Mrs. Florence Casebeer of Palm Springs and Idyllwild, gave a most interesting review of the book "Surprised By Joy," by C. S. Lewis.

Tea was served following the program.

INSIDE AND OUT, the new Racquet Club Road Estates being constructed by George Alexander are the ultimate in luxurious, functional beauty. Designed by the internationally famous, award-winning architectural firm of Palmer and Krisel, the 70 homes boast three bedrooms and two baths on a spacious, 10,000 square foot lot. All are completely fenced. Especially noteworthy is the flowing, evenly-transitioned living room-dining room area which is served by a pass-through bar from an ultra-modern kitchen. Landscaping on the model is severely modern.

Incriminating Evidence

WAREHAM, Mass. — (UP) — While cross-examining State Trooper N.O. Suneson in a gambling case in district court, the defense lawyer borrowed a nickel to prove that a "one-armed bandit" that was part of the evidence wouldn't work. The lawyer hit the jackpot. His clients were promptly convicted and fined.

Business and Professional Women Have Dinner Meeting

Forty members and guests of the Palm Springs Business & Professional Women's Club enjoyed a Mexican dinner in the patio of the Impala Lodge Tuesday night. Decorations and recorded music in the Mexican theme, as well as the costumes of members, created a colorful, "South of the Border" atmosphere.

A program of Mexican dances featured Frances Romero and Peter Nila, two charming youngsters from Trixie Jarrette's Dance Studio.

In keeping with the Club's theme for this meeting, "Health and Safety," Palm Springs' Fire Marshal Warren Heath delivered an interesting report on fires and their prevention.

Mrs. Gertrude Anderson, president of Palm Springs Toastmistress Club, spoke on the coming "D" Day Clean Up Campaign in the City of Palm Springs scheduled for the first week of December.

At the close of the program, Mrs. Fern Laurance, hostess, and owner of Impala Lodge, was presented by the Club with a beautiful electric coffee urn in appreciation of her warm hospitality and generosity in naming the Lodge as the Club's permanent meeting place.

The committee for Tuesday's dinner meeting consisted of Mrs. Sarah Freedman, chairman, Mrs. Hazel Critchlow, Mrs. M. N. S. Smoot, Mrs. Angela Caldwell and Mrs. Mary McGraw. A beautifully decorated cake was donated by B&P member Madge Whitacre.

There are fewer cherries in commercial pie fillings than in cans of cherries of comparable weight. Starch mixtures add weight to the pie fillings. It takes 24 to 30 ounces of cherries to make a plump 9-inch pie.

Sisterhood Style Show Luncheon

Fashions never shown before will be featured at the gala luncheon and fashion show to be sponsored by the Sisterhood of Temple Isaiah on Tuesday, December 2, at 12 noon at the Bonaire Hotel, 2675 N. Indian Avenue.

Coordinated by Barbara Foster, the show will feature styles from Madelyn Fio Rita, imports of famous European couturiers; jewelry from Jolie Gabor, and shoes from Sam Bork Originals.

A catered luncheon will be served preceding the showing and there will be door prizes.

Bess Emanuel is president of the group; Gwen Gore, ways and means chairman, and Helen Chapman, program chairman. Assisting hospitality chairman Dorothy Jaffee as hostesses for the occasion, will be Sally Franks, Irene Harris, Irene Litoff, Ida Stern, Edith Nodell and Mrs. A. Greenleigh.

Reservations may be made by calling FA 5-2055.

A sitter service for mothers wishing to leave their children while attending the event will be available at the Jewish Community Center.

Friendliness Makes Happy Thanksgiving

The thoughtfulness of friends made Thanksgiving Day a real day of thanksgiving for Mrs. Paul Sawtelle of 1610 Tamarisk Road, and her nurse Miss Ann Stenson.

A member of Desert Art Center and the Writers Guild, Mrs. Sawtelle has been nursing a broken leg and didn't have much holiday spirit, until, to her complete surprise a beautifully roasted turkey arrived at her home. It was the gift of Dave Margolis and Jack Dempsey of the Howard Manor, where she is a frequent visitor. Howard Manor chef Walter Luth was responsible for preparing the turkey and the trimmings, which accompanied it.

Rachel Circle Completes Plans For Festival

A delicious waffle breakfast, served poolside in the lanai of the new home of Mrs. Roy Burton at 344 Sunset Drive, Tuesday morning, entertained the ladies of the Rachel Circle of Palm Springs Community Church. Joining Mrs. Burton as hostesses were Mrs. Jerrine Kenny and Mrs. Ben F. Marti.

Over their breakfast tables, the Circle members made final plans for the Oriental Booth at the Harvest Moon Festival, which will be a joint effort of the Women's Association, and will be held at 160 North Palm Canyon Drive (formerly Palm Springs Drug). Exotic Oriental merchandise for the booth was displayed by chairman Mrs. Jack Coppas. Colorful Japanese kimonos were modeled by Mrs. Harry Grimm, Mrs. Doak Davis and Mrs. Jack Coppas.

Attending the breakfast meeting, in addition to those already mentioned, were Meses. George Chandler, Ben F. Marti, E. W. Jones, L. B. Utterback, Harry Samuelson, Walter Clark, Doak Davis, Harry Howell, June Hull, Ruth Dixon. Mrs. George Chandler will hostess the December meeting of Rachel Circle at her home at 985 Via Livorno, assisted by Mrs. Doak Davis and Mrs. Harry Howell.

Madrigals Enjoyed By Juniors

Highlighting the meeting of the Palm Springs Junior Women's Club held at the Desert Inn Tuesday evening, was the inspiring program given by the Madrigal Group of Nellie Coffman Junior High School under direction of Hugh Givens. Appearing were Lynn Hamerschlag, Oudol Rac-kov, Cyl Teitelbaum, Judy Col-etti, Cathy Givens, Robert Sherril, Bob Franks, Gary Marx, Richard Morse, Merle Moore, Gary Beebe, and Eric Teitelbaum.

The meeting was called to order by president Emily Williams, who introduced three guests, Joanne Burkett, Ruth Hayes, and the Junior Coordinator from In-dio, Mrs. Dorothy Schwenck. A report was given on the sale of Christmas cards. Evelyn Schilling, Mary Ellen Hill, and Shirley Larson were the top three on sales, and Mrs. Schilling will receive a nice gift for her efforts.

Unanimous vote approving a gift of $100 for the purchase of books for the library of the Palm Springs Boys Club was decided upon by the Club.

The meeting was adjourned with refreshments of cupcakes and coffee served by the hostesses, Geneva Watson and Mary Ann Koehler.

The margins on mats in picture frames vary in size. The bottom margin is wider than the other three. In matting a horizontal rectangle, make the two side margins wider than the top. A vertical rectangle should have the top margin wider than the side margins. A square should have top and side margins of the same width.

Story of Jenny Lind Chosen One of Operas To Be Staged By Redlands Opera Group

Leonard Bernstein's opera, "Trouble in Tahiti" and the world premiere of the opera, "The Concert" by Mrs. Lucille C. Marsh, widely known Redlands composer and UR alumna, are coming productions of the University of Redlands' Opera Workshop to be presented on December 5 and 6 at 8:15 p.m. in Watchorn Hall auditorium on the university campus. Tickets are $1.00 for adults, 50 cents for children and may be purchased at the box office.

"Trouble in Tahiti" tells of a suburban marriage and the factors which pull the wedded union apart resulting from the tempo of modern living. The principles are Ann Thomson as the troubled wife, Dinah, and Jim Orr playing her husband, Sam.

A chorus technique used in the ancient Greek theater is integrated into the Bernstein opera. The chorus, effectively modified into a trio by Bernstein, comments on the drama taking place and is composed of Jean Ford, John Greenfield and Norman Baffrey. Jim Adams is the accompanist for "Trouble in Tahiti."

The story of Jenny Lind, famous Scandinavian concert prima donna, is beautifully told in Mrs. Marsh's opera, "The Concert." Starring in the singing lead is Lynne Stewart and playing her husband - accompanist, Otto Goldschmidt, is Anthony Thompson.

P. T. Barnum, the Impresario, is played by Arthur Palmer and Betty June Hooten is the mother of Captain Harris who is characterized by Don Rohrer. Bob Jones, in addition to being the accompanist for "The Concert,"

Club's Two Delegates At Conclave

Toastmistress members Betty Luce and Martha Roach, attending the Fall conference, toured the U. S. Naval Ordnance Test Station at China Lake, adjacent to Ridgecrest, Saturday. This is the Navy's largest ordnance research and development center dealing with rockets, guided missiles, torpedoes and aircraft-fire control systems.

The Fall Conference of Council No. 8 took place in the beautiful new Community Center Building with Francis Scinto, chairman of the Council, presiding. Vital points of extemporaneous speaking were given by Vivian Clary, ITC committee chairman. The workshops were "Parliamentary Clinic" and "How to Evaluate." Also, a surprise extemporaneous speech by Lola Hemmingsway of Desert Hot Springs, "The Modern Woman of Yesterday and Today" was given and evaluated. Muriel Bryant presented points in helping members to prepare a winning "Year-book on Toastmistress Activities."

Members were shown the Michelson experimental laboratory, beautiful grounds and golf course, and had dinner at the Navy Commissioned Officers' Dining Room. The theme of the conference, "Widening the Path," showed members how they as individuals could widen their interests not only in self-improvement but also by widening their worldly knowledge of the advancement being made in the new space age of missiles for national defense.

Gertrude Anderson, president of the local Toastmistress Club, announced that the next meeting will be December 2, 7:30 p.m. in the Teachers diningroom at the Palm Springs High School. Those interested in Toastmistress may call her at FA 4-1942 during the evenings for further information.

Spend Holiday at Smoke Tree Ranch

The William McCullums is the general manager for Bethlehem Steel Company, of Hillsboro, California, returned home Wednesday after spending almost a week at Smoke Tree Ranch. While here they were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Geraghty of 1567 South Riverside Drive.

Thanksgiving Day dinner guests were the Geraghtys' three sons, Mike, Kerry and Rickey, Mrs. Geraghty's sister, Mary Jane Hicks and her mother Mrs. Joe Halsey.

City of Hope Chapter To Celebrate Anniversary

A grand first birthday celebration will be held on Monday, December 1, 8 p.m. at the Jewish Community Center, 332 West Alejo Road, by the Palm Springs Chapter, City of Hope. The meeting will be dedicated to the men who join or have joined the City of Hope this year. There will be a special program honoring the men members, including the presentation of the charter, prizes, entertainment and fun for everyone. Preceding the celebration there will be a brief business meeting.

A tour of the City of Hope Medical Center in Duarte has been arranged for Wednesday, December 3. This will be a most enlightening and pleasant trip. All members and their friends are invited. Buses will leave Tanners Garage at 9:30 a.m. and will return at 4:30 p.m. For reservations please call Mrs. Irvin Matloff FA 5-5866.

Mrs. Beatrice Wittenberg and her committee wish to thank all who helped make the Gourmet Sale such a big success. Winner of the turkey was Florence Williams.

Clubwomen To Enjoy Musicales

Palm Springs Woman's Club will enjoy a double musical treat when Meren-Bach, "The Poet of the Piano" and Virginia Scott with her dramatization of "Folk Songs," will appear on the same program, December 1 at 2 p.m. in the Club House.

Meren-Bach, pianist - actor in the costume of the period, brilliantly performs at the keyboard the life and music of Frederic Chopin.

Virginia Scott charms with her dramatized Folk Songs as she combines singing, acting and playing the Auto Harp. She is a radio actress and featured soloist of Gene Autry's "Melody Ranch."

Tea will be served following the program with Mrs. Thomas Holland as tea chairman assisted by Mrs. S. A. Arnold, Lotta Choate, Claude Freeman, Lee Havener, A. H. Lawrence, Paul Leathers, Paul Lyons, Maybelle Noyes, Fred Rosseland, Marvin Sale, Samuel Taylor and Volle Tripp.

Maria Brown Now Social Director At El Mirador

General Manager Dick Vander Veer, of El Mirador Hotel, yesterday announced the appointment of Mrs. Maria Brown as social director of the fashionable desert spa. She succeeds the ever popular Joan McManus.

Born in Milano, Italy, Mrs. Brown is the daughter of the late Count Nino Giuseppe de Caimi del Drago and Countess Edith Guarana di Caimi del Drago. She relinquished her own title as Countess when she became a naturalized citizen of this country.

Her formal education began in the Convent of the Ursuline Sisters in Milano, Italy. She graduated from the Scuola d'Italia, Rio de Janeiro an accomplished linguist, being qualified as a translator in the Portuguese, Spanish and French languages in addition to Italian.

The groundwork was laid for a career as social director when she was program chairman for the Officers' Wives Club in Pensacola, Florida.

A newcomer to Palm Springs, she feels very much at home here because it is so reminiscent of the Italian Riviera where she spent several seasons before coming to America.

Has Family Here For Thanksgiving

Holiday dishes claiming a pilgrim heritage provided a festive setting for the dinner table of Mrs. Peggy Cox, when she entertained her family at Thanksgiving dinner at her home on Grenfall Road.

Mrs. Cox's three daughters and their families joined her for the day, including Dr. and Mrs. Nicholas Khoury; Mrs. Sue Morrow and children and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Campbell and family, all from Los Angeles.

Tomlinsons Hear Feld Quartet

The musical director of the Music Society of Palm Springs, Harry Tomlinson, joined an audience of patrons of quartet music in the Los Angeles home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gustlin where the Feld Quartet was presented prior to their Los Angeles debut.

The Feld Quartet is scheduled to appear in Palm Springs in February for the Music Society here.

Tomlinson and his wife were the guests of Redlands University President Dr. George Armacost. Also attending were Mrs. George Mullen, president of the Redlands Bowl Assn., Mrs. H. Carter, representing the Hollywood Bowl Assn., Mrs. Robert Calkins, executive director of the Riverside Opera Assn., Dr. Leslie Spelman, director of Redlands University's Music Department and many other musically prominent South-landers.

Celebrate Two Birthdays at Once

Celebrating at a double birthday dinner at Howard Manor Tuesday evening, were Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Don Bortoff.

Mrs. Bortoff's birthday was Monday and Mrs. Miller's birthday was Wednesday, so the foursome picked the date in between to celebrate.

We Ask You to Compare These Bargains Before You Buy

$15,000—Owners have already purchased new home, must sell 3 bedrooms, carpets, drapes, range and refrigerator included. A chance to make a good buy. Terms.

$45,000—Nearly new, 3 bedrooms, 3 baths home located near El Mirador Hotel. Newly and expensively furnished by leading decorator. Heated and filtered pool. On the sunny side of the street—also guest house, with refrigeration. We ask you to look at this before you buy.

$54,500—Do you know a bargain when you see one? Located in popular south end, 2 bedrooms, den, 2 baths, maid's room and bath. Refrigerated cooling, heated and filtered pool, beautifully landscaped, fenced for privacy. Present owner has many thousands more than asking price in this home.

$75,000—Right in the heart of beautiful Las Palmas; business has kept the owner of this large family home too busy to take advantage of his Palm Springs home so he has asked us to sell for him. 7 bedrooms, 6½ baths, large combination family room and dining room—large lot with pool. Excellent value.

INCOME

$38,500—4 units near walking distance to Safeway, Thrifty and surroundings, owner apartment, especially nice—flagstone fireplace in living room, built-in range and oven in kitchen, large bedroom. A real chance for a good buy.

PALM DESERT, WHICH never had Gay 90's bathing beauties (the community's only 12 years old), has sprouted a flock of them for the desert resort city's first annual Gay Nineties Week, Dec. 3-7. The above quintet, left to right, Mrs. Bob Pennell, Mrs. William Seals, Mrs. Mike Munier, Vicky Thompson and Joan Nemeroff, preview ancient suits which they will wear in the old-fashioned bathing suit contest that will be one of the highlights of the five-day celebration. A host of other events redolent of a by-gone era will help Palm Desert celebrate its 12th birthday during the five-day festival.

Clark Replaces Purcell on City Planning Group

Architect John Porter Clark has been appointed by the City Council as successor to Dr. Francis A. Purcell on the City Planning Commission.

Council members also approved the re-appointment to the commission of Village Realtor Harold Hicks.

A commission vacancy was created two weeks ago when Dr. Purcell resigned because of business reasons.

Council members have also appointed three members to the Advisory Traffic Committee. Appointees are Councilman John Wood, Don Miller, of the Traffic Safety Council, and George Bond, school district transportation supervisor.

VILLAGE REALTORS GET OFFICE AID FROM TITLE FIRMS

Three checks—for $100 each—have been presented to the Palm Springs Real Estate Board towards the purchase of an electric typewriter for its new office.

The checks were presented at the realtor's election meeting by title firms serving the Palm Springs area.

Riverside Title, Land Title and Security Title were the contributing title firms.

Libeling Daughter Asks Dismissal Of Asset Check

CHICAGO — (UPI) — An attorney has asked for dismissal of one of the persons named in a District Court effort seeking to uncover possible assets of A.M. Libeling, Palm Springs and Illinois businessman.

A trustee has sought an accounting of the property assets of Libeling's wife and his daughter, Mrs. Esther Frank, also of Palm Springs, on grounds that Libeling actually conducts business affairs which ostensibly are operated by his wife and his daughter.

The demand for an accounting stemmed from an effort to uncover assets held by Libeling, who was adjudged bankrupt in federal proceedings in California some years ago.

Maurice Walsh, attorney for Mrs. Frank, filed an answer to the trustee's suit. He said there was no ground for action against Mrs. Frank and her husband, Henry; that no specific properties were mentioned; that any properties owned by the Franks were solely owned, and not jointly with her father.

your birthday that counted La reunion (the reunion) was held at the home of her sister, Dora Prieto, and her husband, Frank, of 888 Sunrise ... The regular Thanksgiving menu fue servido (was served) con una atraccion mas (with an added attraction) which was the beautiful Birthday cake.

Among those present were Cruz and Flora Siva Renona and her husband, Tony Lopez, and their hijo (son), Tony, Jr. (Renona is Eileen's sister), Tomas and Corrine Siva and their daughter, Cynthia Ann (Corinne is Eileen's sister), Gwen Saubel, and Dora and Frank Prieto with their dos chamacos, Michael and Damon ... Happy Birthday!

Don't forget La Fiesta; it started ayer (yesterday) and the dance tonight at the Playhouse y el Domingo (Sunday) manana (tomorrow) all day ... Be careful cuando (when) going back home. Hasta Luego.

'Dr. Luke' Topic Of Queen Esther Church Women

CATHEDRAL CITY — The Queen Esther Circle of the Cathedral City Community Church, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Edward Wills, met at the home of Mrs. Paul Brown at 359 Vista Drive on Tuesday. Mrs. Paul Brown presented the study "Meet Dr. Luke" and Mrs. Don Veitch, who gave the devotional, presented the study and discussion on "Conversations On The Middle East."

Must Have Pull

Motor Vehicle Department Rates Women as Safer Drivers in State

SACRAMENTO — (UPI) — California ladies must have pull with the Department of Motor Vehicles.

That's the only conclusion a man can reach after seeing the results of a department survey of 94,935 drivers licensed three or more years.

The agency issued the survey Thursday, giving all the lean meat to the women and the gizzard to the men.

THIS IS WHAT the statisticians claim to have found in their sampling of driver records:

—About 51 per cent of the men had been cited for traffic violations but only 24 per cent of the women.

—Between 90 and 94 per cent of the women had driven without accidents, only 80 per cent of the men.

—The men didn't even come close to the 23-year-old women's violation free level until the age of 62.

THE AGENCY'S sampling — five men drivers for every three women drivers—tugged especially hard at the whiskers of the younger men. It was found that 37 per cent of 19-year-old youths had been involved in accidents and 78 per cent of 22-year-old men had chalked up traffic convictions.

On the other hand, women at the age of 23 "hit an even stride that lasts for the rest of their lives." About three-fourths of the ladies drive without accumulating traffic tickets.

THE MEN DIDN'T even reach the 65 per cent conviction-free level until the age of 62. Then the statisticians found they have "odd peaks of excellence" at ages 76, 84 and 87 and reach a "momentary near-perfection" at 89 and 90.

"There is a mysterious fall from grace at the dangerous age of 91," the survey notes, "followed by a quick recovery at 92 and 93."

The department cautioned, however, that samplings in the very advanced ages were "so slim as not to have serious weight statistically."

EXPLAINING THE apparently safer performance of women behind the wheel, the agency could only suggest that "women tend to be licensed later in life than men, and probably average less driving experience."

The statisticians found that over a three-year period, partially because of the feminine contribution, 86 per cent of all drivers sampled had gone without accidents, and 59 per cent had been without court convictions.

Significantly, the department feels, drivers with three traffic offenses on their record had four times as many accidents as those with no convictions. Drivers with five recorded violations had six times as many accidents as those with none.
